

Tradition 12: Take Away Questions

1. Do I sometimes put personalities (my sponsor a speaker or myself) ahead of the principles of AA?
2. In what ways do I still struggle with my ego rather than practicing self-effacement and humility?
3. Am I willing to fill “thankless roles” or do I only want to serve when I will get recognition?
4. How can I better model “principles before personalities”?
5. Am I ever guilty of “false piety”? Wanting to look good, sound good or be respected even when I don’t deserve it?
6. Tradition 12 calls us to “sacrifice” self. What am I still unwilling to give up?
7. What is harder for me to give up: credit or control?
