

Tradition 4: Take Away Questions

1. Does my group do anything that does not conform to AA principles and that MIGHT shed a bad light on AA?
2. Do I take seriously the freedom and great responsibility that comes with autonomy?
3. When my group is planning an event or other AA activity do we consider whether it will affect other groups or AA as whole
4. Do I or my group get involved in or support questionable events or activities that could be contrary to AA traditions?
5. Have I conformed myself and my ways of doing things to AA principles? Or am I still self will run riot in and out of AA
6. Do I learn from my mistakes and use them to improve myself and my group? Or do I forge ahead even when I realize I am wrong, so I don't lose face?
7. Have I leaned to not take myself too seriously? Can I take things lightheartedly and even laugh at myself?
